Top Ten Ideas for Romance and Adventure This Valentine's Day
Excitations helps Cupid with the perfect, affordable gift for both of you

Now more than ever, the gift of spending precious time together is a popular option to the traditional gifts of chocolate, flowers and dining out. According to a recent survey by the National Federation of Retailers, consumers will spend about $20 less on their sweetheart this year because of the bad economy. Giving an amazing life experience – doing something fun and adventuresome together – is a trend that is not only affordable, but sparks excitement and lifelong memories.

Excitations, the nation's leading provider of unique and exciting experience gifts, offers an easy way to select and give that special someone an unforgettable experience. From a romantic gondola ride to skydiving together, romance and adventure start as low as $50. Every gift comes in a distinctive red box to surprise and delight on Valentine's Day and includes everything needed to enjoy an incredible experience at a later date.

"Traditional Valentine's Day gifts are often fleeting and expensive," states Nancy Lambertson, founding partner of Excitations. "Many of us would rather skip the calories and invest in some quality time with the one we love. It's amazing how many experiences you can share that are fun and cost less than a fancy bouquet of flowers or a dinner out."
