

DIVE A WRECK

Jump into the water with wreckless abandon. Embark on a guided diving adventure exploring shipwrecks submerged in Lake Michigan. Explore the historic remains of a variety of ships and steamers that date as far back as 1860. Whether you're interested in sightseeing, underwater photography, or maritime history, the abundant marine life and amazing sights are one of a kind. Divers should be certified and experienced in open water diving.

- Arrive at the marina for a brief introduction and overview
