

LEARN TO SAIL • CREW COURSE

Anchors away! Get a taste of the boating life with a two-day introduction to sailing. Sail away on the Bay as you batten down the basics of seamanship and navigation. With an emphasis on practical training and experience, you'll learn the essentials more quickly and thoroughly than you ever thought possible. Begin at the helm on the morning of your first class – you'll be a seasoned crewmate by the next afternoon! Perfect for landlubbers and old salts alike.

- Begin each lesson with a short classroom discussion before heading down to the docks
- Climb aboard and learn how to sail from a licensed and certified instructor
- Cover sailing terminology and techniques, water rules and regulations and how to navigation
- Leave feeling confident on the water and ready for a lifetime of sailing
- Includes all learning materials and lunch
