

LUNCH WITH REDSKINS FOR TWO

Big on the pig(skin)? Join the team! Attend an up close and personal session with former and current Washington Redskins players at an exciting football luncheon. Ask questions and hear inside stories of what happens on the field and after the games. Hosted by former Redskin and Sportstalk host, Rick “Doc” Walker, it’s as close as you can get to the team without getting drafted!

- Begin with a meet and greet reception before lunch
- Eat and enjoy an engaging NFL program, featuring a round of Q&A with one to three current and/or former players and, on occasion, a surprise special sports guest
- Learn first-hand about team strategies and get the inside locker room perspective of the game
- Conclude your experience with an opportunity to collect autographs and take photographs with the players
