

RINGTAILED LEMUR NIGHTHOUSE VISIT

What do lemurs eat? Find out with a behind-the-scenes look at the ring-tailed lemur exhibit at the zoo. Lemur, which means “ghost” in Madagascar, is a good name for these mysterious looking creatures. Learn all about these lively primates from a knowledgeable zookeeper. Explore their habitat and watch how they walk on all fours, hinds perched high, foraging the ground for food. Feed them a breakfast of fruits, flowers, and leaves, and then help the zookeeper train and play with the animals.

- Meet the zookeeper for an exclusive encounter with the lemurs
- Enter the lemur night house and discover how these endangered animals are cared for
- Hand feed the lemurs and watch them up close as they eat
- Learn fun facts and everything you ever wanted to know about these amazing animals
- Includes admission to the zoo and souvenir t-shirts for four, plus an educational animal book
