

PRIVATE SAFARI IN THE SONOMA SERENGETI

Trek to it! Heed the call of the wild with a private safari tour of the Sonoma Serengeti! Invite up to nine of your friends and embark on an exciting three-hour, guided trek. Explore the wildlife preserve, traveling first in an authentic safari vehicle and then by foot. Come into close contact with giraffes, gazelles, zebras, and many of the other 400 animals that inhabit the preserve. With the help of your highly experienced guide, you'll enjoy added insight and access to this exotic world. It may not be Africa, but it's close! With animals roaming and running free in this natural habitat, it's the closest a safari comes without requiring a passport.

- Arrive at the wildlife preserve, meet your guide and set off to explore over 400 acres of savannah habitat in an open-air safari vehicle
- Roam the park's inner compound and see giraffes, gnus, and even a cheetah or two
- Ask questions, explore where you wish and learn facts from your private guide
- Choose between a wildlife photographer joining you to direct a photo safari or having a picnic of wine and cheese for your party
- Relax at night and listen to the sounds of the Sonoma Serengeti
- Includes overnight accommodations, safari tour, and continental breakfast for four
