

ROMANTIC NIGHT IN THE SONOMA SERENGETI

Feeling wild at heart? Escape for a romantic overnight stay for two in the Sonoma Serengeti. Spend the day on an incredible journey, watching giraffes, gazelles, zebras, and other exotic animals as they interact and move freely about in their natural habitat. At night, retreat and enjoy the creature comforts of a luxury safari tent, complete with hot showers, plush king size beds, and spacious outdoor deck. It may not be Africa, but it's close! With animals roaming and running free outside your door, this safari escape is the closest it comes without requiring a passport.

- Arrive at the wildlife preserve and check into a luxury tent imported from Africa and built on a high wooden platform
- Explore over 400 acres of savannah habitat in an open-air safari vehicle
- Roam through the park's inner compound and see giraffes, gnus, and even a cheetah or two
- Includes overnight accommodations, safari tour, wine and cheese in room, and continental breakfast for two
