

BEHIND THE SCENES: THE NEW YORK POPS

Go behind the music! Attend a private rehearsal of the renowned New York Pops orchestra. Get an exclusive behind the scenes perspective of how the conductor and the orchestra interact and rehearse. Then, return later that evening to see how it all comes together when The New York Pops formally performs at the celebrated Carnegie Hall. Guest conductors for 2007-2008 include Marvin Hamlisch and Doc Severinsen.

- Attend a Friday afternoon rehearsal at Carnegie Hall
- Observe an internationally acclaimed pops orchestra prepare for a performance
- Explore New York City in between rehearsal and the concert or enjoy pre-show fine dining at one of the surrounding restaurants
- Return to Carnegie Hall at 8 pm that evening to enjoy the actual concert
- Includes one year New York Pops supporter membership
