

NY POPS GALA & DINNER FOR TWO

Dress to the nines and put on your dancing shoes! Get tickets for two to the New York Pops' 24th Birthday Gala, one of the season's most celebrated black tie affairs. On April 30, 2007, superstars from popular music, Broadway, television, jazz and cabaret will take the stage at Carnegie Hall with the New York Pops to support the orchestra, its education programs, and free summer concerts in New York City parks. Following the concert, the party continues four blocks away with a post-concert dinner and dance reception at the famous Hotel Pierre. Hosted this year by syndicated columnist Liz Smith, this year's honorees include Neil Sedaka and Macy's.

- Attend one of the city's most elegant social events of the season
- Begin with a star-studded performance at Carnegie Hall featuring the New York Pops
- Head to the grand Hotel Pierre following the performance for a post-concert birthday bash
- Toast this year's honorees while enjoying an evening of fine dining and dancing
