

PRIVATE FALCON HUNT

Great Scots! Travel back in time and experience the thrill of the chase with a Scottish hawk hunt for two. Witness the beauty and strength of these amazing birds of prey as they swoop and soar through the sky, hunting for food in their natural habitat. A crew of kilted master falconers will lead the hunt, guiding you along a leisurely hike through scenic woodlands. See firsthand how they cast a bird into the forest and then call it back to its fist. This one-of-a-kind outing includes insight and anecdotes, plus the chance to see a hawk or falcon in action like you've never seen before!

- Meet your guides and embark on a short drive in all-terrain vehicles to a nearby woodland
- Set off through the forest on a simulated hawk hunt that uses a “RoboRabbit” as a lure
- Learn all about birds of prey, falconry's rich history, and some of the rules governing the sport
- Witness the amazing grace and precision these birds exude as they fly back to strike the lure
- Share traditional Scottish trail fare including haggis, shortbread, and a flask of Scotch
