

PRIVATE LITERARY PUB CRAWL

Want the full story? Join a popular theater troupe for a lively, literary-themed pub crawl of the Village. Throughout history, Greenwich Village has been a popular place for artists and writers to live and work. Edgar Allen Poe, Louisa May Alcott, Allen Ginsburg, Bob Dylan –all were known to find inspiration in this vibrant neighborhood. Work your way from bar to bar, making frequent stops for literary sights and famous neighborhood landmarks. Sip and enjoy your beverage of choice while listening to colorful reenactments of local literary lore.

- Meet your guide at the White Horse Tavern, second home to Dylan Thomas
- Tour the historic streets of Greenwich Village by foot with a knowledgeable guide
- Stop for libations at nostalgic establishments that include: Chumley's, Kettle of Fish, and Minetta Tavern
- Watch history come to life as local actors act out fascinating tales and anecdotes about some of our country's most celebrated authors
- Include t-shirt to commemorate your experience

Your Gift Locations*

Greenwich Village, New York, NY

Availability

Year round, Sunday through Friday

Duration

2.5 to 3 hours

Essential Information

No age restrictions; participants must be 21 years old with proper identification to order drinks at the pubs

Numbers

Private experience for 2

*GIFTS ARE REGIONALLY BASED. PLEASE VISIT WWW.EXCITATIONS.COM/REDEEM FOR THE LATEST LOCATION LISTINGS • ED01-02-1621-A