

INDIAN CULTURAL ADVENTURE FOR TWO

Embark on a tribal quest. Jump into a jeep and get a fascinating look at the lives of the Cahuilla Indian tribe. Journey to a natural palm oasis and to a registered archeological site where an original Cahuilla village once sat. Your expert naturalist guide will share with you the customs, culture, and ceremonies of these desert dwellers and how they lived and thrived in such a harsh, dry environment. See petroglyphs, metatés, native fish traps, a hunting blind, and more.

- Meet your guide at a specified location to begin your guided jeep eco-tour
- Explore a historically accurate recreation of a Cahuilla Indian village
- Learn how the tribe made use of desert resources for food, water, and medicinal remedies
- Take a short, easy hike and enjoy incredible views of the Coachella Valley
- Finish with a visit to a real archeological dig site and participate if you choose
