

B17 FANTASY FLIGHT CAMP

Turn and burn! Drop back in time to World War II with a weekend of activities that celebrates the magnificent B-17 Flying Fortress. A symbol of courage, honor, and freedom, this amazing aircraft was recognized for its long-range capabilities and defensive firepower. Immerse yourself in the B-17's notable history, learn about its restoration process, and meet veterans who piloted the planes. Complete the weekend with a once-in-a-lifetime flight in the "Aluminum Overcast", one of the few B-17's left in this world.

- Begin the weekend with an opportunity to meet and greet your fellow aviation enthusiasts
- Learn from B-17 veterans and aviation experts about this aircraft's unique history, flying characteristics, and restoration initiatives
- Enjoy a private tour of the aviation museum featuring antique airplanes, aerobatic aircrafts, warbirds, ultralights, and more
- Finish the weekend with a 45-minute flight in an authentic B-17 plane
- Includes 6 meals and 2 nights stay in the Air Academy Lodge
