

R.I.B. RIDE DOLPHIN ADVENTURE

Do dolphins sometimes smile by mistake? No, it's always on porpoise! Follow the herd and come face to face with some of the sea's friendliest creatures on board a Navy SEAL Rigid Inflatable Boat (RIB). Clip across the San Diego Bay and keep an eye out for the playful bottlenose dolphins, the gregariously curious long and short-beaked commons, and the ever frolicking Pacific white-sided species. New this year, a herd of typically tropical Risso's dolphins have also been observed taking residence offshore - a rare and unusual treat! Strong and seaworthy, the RIB's low profile offers an up close and personal view of these fascinating sea mammals.
