

GASLAMP WALKING TOUR

Walk this way! Follow in the footsteps of Wyatt Earp with a guided walking tour of the historic Gaslamp Quarter. Journey back in time and take a close look at the area where the Stingaree district flourished in the 1800's, when the city fell into disrepair. Fun and family-friendly, the tour takes you by many of the best Victorian style commercial buildings constructed in San Diego during the years between the Civil War and World War I.

- Begin by meeting your tour guide at the William Heath Davis house
- Embark on a walking tour of the museum and the streets of Old Town San Diego
- Discover the haunts of famous former resident, Wyatt Earp, along the way
- See the sights and hear the stories as you take in the history and beautiful architecture that abound in this great area
