

WALKING PHOTO SAFARI

You'll be hunting on foot around lower Manhattan and armed with your own camera, as you focus on improving your night photography skills during this safari with a professional photographer, whose specialty is night and architectural photography. Make tracks and put your camera skills to the challenge of photography after sunset as you capture the Manhattan skyline in the twilight hours. Capture the ever changing scenery of the hunt.

- Photographers of any skill level, with any kind of camera, film or digital, are invited to tour
- Understand the options for night photography, and when to choose black and white film over color
- Collect tips on exterior and architectural photography
- Experience the city's bridges - Brooklyn and Manhattan - and unique surroundings
- Includes lunch and drinks at Grimaldi's Pizza in Brooklyn
