

ROCK & ROLL FANTASY CAMP

Are you ready to rock? Here's your ticket for the ultimate rock and roll fantasy where not only will you meet the band, but you'll play with them too! Spend four days in Hollywood jamming with your heroes, recording in a professional studio, and receiving master instruction from legends in the industry. Rub shoulders and learn from the likes of Brian Wilson (Beach Boys), Nick Mason (Pink Floyd) and Cliff Williams (AC/DC). Other counselors include Bruce Kulick (KISS), Elliot Easton (The Cars), Mickey Dolenz (The Monkees) and more. For the novice or the expert, the amateur and the aficionado, it's a rock n' roll dream come true. Be sure to bring your camera – there's plenty opportunities for photos and autographs all weekend long.

- Check in at the studio for a brief orientation and to receive your band assignment
- Spend four days rehearsing and recording with master musicians in a professional studio
- Learn classic songs in addition to playing and writing your own original
- Party like a rock star at night with food, drink, and late jam night sessions
- Invite your friends to attend your final night's performance at the House of Blues
- Take home a souvenir DVD or your concert and memories that will last a lifetime
