

PERSONAL FASHION EDITING

It's time to come out of the closet! Discover your unique personal style with the help of a professional closet consultant. Let her work her magic on you and your wardrobe, shaping a stylish strategy that will leave you looking great. A master at assessing your personal preferences and tastes, she'll pick your brain and then take to your closet. She'll weed out what works, what doesn't, and coordinate what's left, creating a minimum of three new fabulous looks. Then, she'll share with you her scoop on shopping, leaving you with a list of what to buy and where to go to maintain the fashionable new you.

- Begin with a phone interview, where your personal fashion editor will gather information about your lifestyle and preferences
- Get ready to edit with a fun and fashionable assignment that will provide you with a solid sense of your style potential
- Let down your guard (and your fashion editor loose) in your closet, where she'll combine and create an array of flattering new combos to wear
- Finish with tips and tricks to shop with confidence, plus a solid fashion strategy for your fashion future
