

ANTIQUÉ FIRE ENGINE TOUR

See the Bay the “red hot” way, on a famous fire engine tour over the Golden Gate Bridge. Grab a helmet and a fire jacket, then climb aboard a shiny, red vintage fire truck (circa 1955) for a fun-filled tour of San Francisco. Travel through the Presidio, over the Golden Gate Bridge, and on to scenic Sausalito, a charming village across the Bay. On your way back, break at Fort Baker an ideal spot for a group photo - before heading back to town.

- Arrive outside The Cannery to meet your guides
- Suit up in authentic fire fighter garb
- Take your seat in a big Mack fire truck to see the sights of San Francisco
- Explore beautiful neighborhoods, meet colorful characters, and enjoy spectacular views
