

BEHIND THE SCENES • AQUARIUM OF THE PACIFIC

For a whale of a good time, dive beneath the surface at the Aquarium of the Pacific and take an extraordinary insider's tour of exotic aquatics! Enter the "wet side" of the aquarium, not normally open to the public, and get a sneak peak into the daily operations. Discover the shimmering world behind the glass as you go nose-to-nose with sea turtles, an elusive Pacific octopus, sea otters and more. Observe how the animals are fed in the Tropical Reef as you observe them from above, and more. A truly fascinating adventure you'll never forget.

- Enjoy a behind-the-scenes tour of Aquarium of the Pacific
- Learn what it takes to maintain a world class aquarium, from water filtration to animal care and feeding
- Go above the Tropical Reef and feed some of the fish
- Walk away armed with interesting facts about the aquarium, such as it has enough concrete in it to build a 73 mile long sidewalk
- Includes admission to the Aquarium, so stay and explore more on your own
