

SWALLOW SPECTACLE • CRUISE FOR TWO

Follow the swallows! Enjoy an evening sunset on a spectacular, swallow-watching cruise for two. A popular spot for birds to flock on their migration route, the Connecticut River Valley attracts tens of thousands of birds each year. One particular flock returns nightly to roost, taking over the sky and creating an amazing aerial ballet. Experience the spectacle for yourself and learn from a seasoned naturalist about the swallows' amazing journey. Pack a picnic basket, bring your beverage of choice, and don't forget your binoculars!

- Climb aboard a cozy passenger boat equipped with an enclosed, heated observation deck
- Learn about bird migration and other wildlife from a seasoned naturalist
- Wait and watch for as many as half a million swallows to fly in from as far as 25 miles to return to Old Lyme to roost
