

ART MUSEUM TOUR FOR KIDS • THE MET

Brush up on your art smarts! From Van Gogh to Michelangelo, Egyptian mummies to Greek gods, great artwork comes to life with a private tour for kids of the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Round up five of your friends and join noted art expert, Natasha Schlesinger, for a fun, interactive trip through the collections. Spend the afternoon learning how to explore and compare original works of art. Then, finish your adventure creating your own special piece of art.

- Set the tone of your experience by choosing a kid friendly theme before the tour
- On the big day, meet your guide outside the entrance to the Metropolitan Museum of Art
- Enjoy a lively trip through the exhibits with an experienced art expert who encourages interactive discovery
- Conclude the tour by creating your own artistic masterpiece
- Includes art project materials and admission fees for up to six children
