

DISCOVER THE CAPITAL BY BIKE

Discover the Capital by bike! Take a leisurely trip around our nation's capital and enjoy its past and present as you cycle from one end of the National Mall to the other, taking in popular sights including: Lincoln Memorial, White House, Supreme Court, Union Station, the Capitol, the Washington Monument and more. Lay on the brakes long enough to get the latest on current Smithsonian exhibits and special events. Whether you're on your own or out with the family, this guided tour is an exciting way to experience this historical town.

- Begin by meeting your guide and be fitted for your bicycle
- Set off for the sights as you pedal around town at a casual pace using "low traffic" routes
- Stop and enjoy a snack along the way in a scenic spot
- Includes snack, bottled water and use of bike and helmet
