

CATTLE DRIVE

“Back in the Saddle Again” will be your theme song as you ride on the open range. Experience a day at a real working farm corralling up cattle on one of the few dude ranches in the East. Take in the incredible mountain vistas as you ride the range of over 4,200 acres at the Marriott Ranch and Fairfield Inn, nestled in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Get a chance to exchange stories and insights with seasoned horsemen and women cowhands.

- Drive the Longhorn herd from one pasture to another while learning tricks and techniques from experienced ranch hands
- After a morning in the saddle, dig in to a hearty western BBQ cookout
- Designed for a range of riding skills - from the advanced beginner to the experienced rider
- Includes everything you need to participate in an authentic drive
