

SYMPHONY SALON

Tune in to the sound of music with a fascinating symphony salon series for two. This special two-part program features an intriguing pre-concert salon combined with an exhilarating performance by the critically acclaimed Riverside Symphony at Lincoln Center a few nights later. Bring your curiosity and questions to these lively evenings of listening and learning. Meet the musicians and creative directors who shape the symphony's experience. Then, hear firsthand what all the talk was about with tickets for two the night of the performance.

- Attend the pre-concert salon at the elegant Americas Society, a former Rockefeller residence
- Converse with the symphony's founders, leading composers and musicians in an intimate setting
- Stay for a complimentary wine and cheese reception at the end of the salon
- Show up at Lincoln Center for the performance with a new appreciation for the program
